DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

The Old Clara Whitby House stands on the northwest side of Route 328 about three miles from Denton on Tuckahoe Neck. The house consists of three sections, the principal section facing the road being a five bay, two and one-half story frame dwelling with gable in the center of the roof. The other two sections on; in an 'L' to the rear and consisting of a two bay, two story section on a lower level, and a two bay one story wing at the end. The lower two sections of the house may be earlier.

Aluminum siding covers all of the walls. The windows have 6/6 sash and louvered shutters. Across the central entrance door is a new portico.

Its interior is relatively typical of the 1860's in Caroline County with crossetted trim like that used on Greek Revival Houses. The front building was constructed to be heated by stoves, even though there were mantels in front of the flues.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

Asbury Manor is included in this survey as a survivor of 110-120 years, with an even earlier part. It is a relatively typical farmhouse of a prosperous farm of the period. It resembles the Dukes Farm adjoining to the southwest and also the Scarborough-Fisher Farm, farther down the Neck.
